Argotist Ebooks

Ginny O'Brien and Michael Basinski live in Buffalo, New York. He is the Curator of the Poetry Collection of the University Libraries, University at Buffalo, and she is the Curator of Education of the University at Buffalo Art Galleries. Together they have had work in the Western Humanities Review and in Damn the Caesars. He writes, "This poetry of brittle and beautiful shards ruptures reading and writing with its forest song."

Billy Collins – Poet Lariat.

I write Billy Collins in the poetry because I know it will get published. And piss off a lot of poets who hates Billy Collins. This gives me sadistic and stupid pleasure. Replacing rules not breaking dishes. This poem begins, therefore, with the words Billy Collins. Billy Collins. Tom Collins. Billy Cocktail. Billy Crockett (two ts like Beckett). The Beatles. Crochet. Crickettes. Lassie was a collie. Lassie was a crocaDial soap or Kucumbur or Kewpie. It's more important that I love you pronounce it extend my crumbling hand a spore to touch you're immortal penguin.

TITLE: If there was a favorite song [we never had a song – but I heard many songs that expressed my undiscovered feeling of never having you to lose] really never heard them but I can't hear anymore. Only morons. It was never true, one of it. A filament of the imagination. you. [ask the audience or your mind for some songs – hum um or sing um or they can, might – this could go on to the end of time] Today, the January 8, 2004 sun is as strong and cold as a poet. Must have had a dish or cancer. Smoking did it or am I hearing the poetry wrongly song. [some people can smoke – it's ok – it's part of the poem] But I don't know. Poetry knots. Here in the poetry like a candy bowl he(a)r forever and lions. [let's hear some roars]. A favorite our song is my sleeping without writing. What has this poem to do with me? Who said that? This lure or breathe of air. You pick it like a seashell. Unlit cigarette because of the disconnect of time my form of hands being about me a tree yUr or ivy fingers crown my curly head. Janis Joplin? Wish bone wishbow dog Bisquick wish I had a wish tonight. A corsage of dog biscuits. [perform Yoko Ono's Lightning Piece.] Today, the yellow January 8, 2004 sun is as strong and cold as a July sunflower weary of time. I have a burning match. 16 her sixteen poems the under hands up and I have to rake the fallen leaves and moist candles. Coffins. Talk about it here. What is it? Go on forever. [name all the flowers you can name – ask for help – call someone on the phone or go to the library – just call out – anyone – please pretend]. I am all ears. I'm confused. Just listen to this. What's happening? Tell me a story, please; your song is my song. Or listen to it. We'll listen to it. Wheel is is my music: stupid lips'll buy you a pumpkin. Now you won't go away. Night sits waiting for the light to change. Is this my wish to be haunted for all eternity? All of it? From here to there? From back there to here and on to there? [start with the movie title From Here to Eternity and think of other similar movie titles – ask for help – orchestrate – somebody must know one – how to enter time – or some movie titles with – wish – the same words like eternity and here] Or someone who has a name. [take attendance – keep calling out names until everyone in the audience is accounted for or everyone in the world and is checked off in your big, important book of poetry – shouldn't be hard – this is a poetry reading – who hear don't you know – include yourself] Of forgotten endless black and white flickering ring ring of a movie ending. The phone never rings. Sitting in Mr. Hall's fifth grade class. I want to say no. Don't turn on the lie
